

SILVIUS MAGNAGO PRIZE

For Scientific Research Projects on South Tyrolean Autonomy
2020 AWARD

The Topic:

The Silvius Magnago Academy honors the special quality of scientific research papers (dissertations, master's theses, and collections of essays) by awarding the Silvius Magnago Prize.

The works submitted must be scientific in nature and concern themselves in depth with legal, economic, political, sociological, historical, or cultural aspects of South Tyrolean autonomy – and present new knowledge.

The Prize:

The Silvius Magnago Prize includes the sum of 5,000 Euro as well as a remittance covering printing costs for the publication of the winning research work in the Silvius Magnago Academy series; it is presented in the form of a certificate during a festive celebration.

Eligibility:

Individual persons or groups of persons are eligible to participate. The submitted works – preferably in German, Italian, or English – must not be more than two years old.

Deadlines:

The prize will be awarded for the first time on the tenth anniversary of the death of Silvius Magnago, on May 25, 2020. The scientific research papers must be submitted in printed form and as a PDF together with the filled-out and signed form by January 15, 2020 to the Silvius Magnago Academy (Brennerstrasse 7/A, Bozen / Bolzano).

The Jury:

The submitted documents will be treated with confidentiality; they will be presented to the jury of experts for evaluation without indication of the identity of the author(s). The jury shall select the winner – and in doing so, can make use of external experts.

The jury consists of the following persons (in alphabetical order):

- Univ.-Prof. Dr. Walter Lorenz, Free University of Bozen (social scientist)
- Univ.-Prof. Dr. Walter Obwexer, University of Innsbruck (legal expert)
- Univ.-Prof. Dr. Sonja Puntscher Riekmann, University of Salzburg (political scientist)
- ass. Prof. Dr. Eva Pfanzelter, University of Innsbruck (historian)
- Univ.-Prof. Dr. Heidi Siller Runggaldier, University of Innsbruck (cultural scientist)
- Univ.-Prof. Dr. Gottfried Tappeiner, University of Innsbruck (economist)

Information:

Additional information is available from the Secretariat of the Silvius Magnago Academy (Brennerstrasse 7/A, Bozen / Bolzano – phone: +39 0473 304066, e-mail: info@silvius-magnago-akademie.org).

Complete documentation including the aforementioned form and additional information can be obtained from the Internet (www.silvius-magnago-akademie.org).

There is no recourse to legal action.